

I enjoy satellite radio a lot and am willing to pay for it so that I don't have to listen to commercials.
As a free-market republican I expect you to allow XM radio to compete in any way they want with the other radio stations so that the consumer can truly have as many options as possible. Let the market decide what survives.;

Regards.

Barry